(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, all Custodians, Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodians of evacuee property shall discharge the duties imposed on them by or under this Act under the general superintendence and control of the Custodian-General.

7. Notification of evacuee property.—(1) Where the Custodian is of opinion that any property is evacuee property within the meaning of this Act, he may, after causing notice thereof to be given in such manner as may be prescribed to the persons interested, and after holding such inquiry into the matter as the circumstances of the case permit, pass an order declaring any such property to be evacuee property.

(2) Where a notice has been issued under sub-section (1) in respect of any property, such property shall, pending the determination of the question whether it is evacuee property or otherwise, be incapable of being transferred or charged in any way, except with the leave of the Custodian, and no person shall be capable of taking any benefit from such transfer or charge except with such leave.

(3) The Custodian shall, from time to time, notify, either by publication in the Official Gazette or in such other manner as may be prescribed, all properties declared by him to be evacuee properties under sub-section (1).

8. Vesting of evacuee property in the Custodian.—(1) Any property declared to be evacuee property under section 7 shall be deemed to have vested in the Custodian for the State,—

(2) Where immediately before the commencement of this Act, any property in a State had vested as evacuee property in any person exercising the powers of Custodian under any law repealed hereby, the property shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be evacuee property declared as such within the meaning of this Act and shall be deemed to have vested in the Custodian appointed or deemed to have been appointed for the State under this Act, and shall continue to so vest:

Provided that where at the commencement of this Act there is pending before the High Court, the Custodian or any other authority for or in any State any proceeding under section 8 or section 30 of the Administration of Evacuee Property Ordinance, 1949 (XII of 1949), or under any other corresponding law repealed by the Administration of Evacuee Property Ordinance, 1949 (XXVII of 1949), then notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, such proceeding shall be disposed of as if the definitions of 'evacuee property' and 'evacuee' contained in section 2 of this Act had become applicable thereto.

(3) Where any property in a State belonging to a joint stock company had vested in any person exercising the powers of a Custodian under any law previously in force, then nothing contained in clause (f) of section 2 shall affect the operation of sub-section (2), but the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the Custodian shall be divested of any such property in such manner and after such period as may be specified in the notification.

(4) Where after any evacuee property has vested in the Custodian any person is in possession thereof, he shall be deemed to be holding it on behalf of the Custodian and shall on demand surrender possession of it to the Custodian or to any other person duly authorised by him in this behalf.

9. Power of Custodian to take possession of evacuee property vested in him.—If any person in possession of any evacuee property refuses or fails on demand to surrender possession thereof to the Custodian or to any person duly authorised by him in this behalf, the Custodian may use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary for taking possession of such property and may, for this purpose, after giving reasonable warning and facility to any woman not appearing in public to withdraw, remove or break open any lock, bolt or any door or do any other act necessary for the said purpose.

10. Powers and duties of the Custodian generally.—(1) Subject to the provisions of any rules that may be made in this behalf, the Custodian may take such measures as he considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of securing, administering, preserving and managing any evacuee property and generally for the purpose of enabling him satisfactorily to discharge any of the duties imposed on him by or under this Act and may, for any such purpose as aforesaid, do all acts and incur all expenses necessary or incidental thereto.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in subsection (1), the Custodian may, for any of the purposes aforesaid,—

- (a) carry on the business of the evacuee;

- (g) require any banking company to furnish such information as the Custodian may require with respect to remittances made after the 14th day of August, 1947, to any such area outside India as may be specified by the Custodian, either generally, or with reference to any person or class of persons;
- (h) search any building or place in which the Custodian has reason to believe that any evacuee property or any document tending to show that any person is an evacuee or that any property is evacuee property is being kept or concealed and take possession thereof;
- (i) take such action as may be necessary for the recovery of any debt due to the evacuee;

- (k) raise on the security of the evacuee property such loans as may be necessary;
- (l) in any case where the evacuee property which has vested in the Custodian consists of a share or shares in a company, exercise, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913) or in the articles of association of the company, the same rights in the matter of making a requisition for the convening of a meeting or of presenting a petition to the Court under the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or the articles of association of the company or in any other matter as the evacuee shareholder himself could have done had he been present, although the name of the Custodian does not appear in the register of members of the company;
- (m) incur any expenditure, including the payment of taxes, duties, cesses and rates to Government or to any local authority or of any amounts due to any employee of the evacuee or of any debt due by the evacuee to any person;

(n) pay to the evacuee, or to any member of his family or to any other person as in the opinion of the Custodian is entitled thereto, any sums of money out of the funds in his possession;

(o) transfer in any manner whatsoever any evacuee property, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or agreement relating thereto:

Provided that the Custodian shall not sell any immovable property or any business or other undertaking of the evacuee, except with the previous approval of the Custodian General;

(p) invest any money held by him in any of the securities approved by the Central Government or in the prescribed manner;

(q) delegate, by general or special order, all or any of his functions under this Act to such officers or persons as he thinks fit:

Provided that the Custodian shall not delegate any of his functions under clause (g) or clause (h) to any officer or person below the rank of an Assistant Custodian.

11. Special provisions with respect to certain trust properties.—(1) Where any evacuee property which has vested in the Custodian is property in trust for a public purpose of a religious or charitable nature, the property shall remain vested in the Custodian only until such time as fresh trustees are appointed in the manner provided by law, and pending the appointment of fresh trustees the trust property and the income thereof shall be applied by the Custodian for fulfilling, as far as possible, the purpose of the trust.

Explanation—In this sub-section 'property in trust for a public purpose of a religious or charitable nature' includes a public wakf and the expression 'trustee' includes a mutawalli of such wakf.

(2) In respect of any Wakf-alal-aulad,—

(a) where the mutawalli is an evacuee, the property forming the subject-matter of the wakf shall vest in the Custodian subject to the rights of the beneficiaries under the wakf, if any, who are not evacuees;

(b) where not all the beneficiaries are evacuees, the rights and interests of such of the beneficiaries as are evacuees shall alone vest in the Custodian.

12. Power to vary or cancel leases or allotments of evacuee property.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Custodian may cancel any allotment or terminate any lease or amend the terms of any lease or agreement under which any evacuee property is held or occupied by a person, where such allotment, lease or agreement has been granted or entered into after the 14th day of August, 1947.

(2) Where by reason of any action taken under sub-section (1), any person has ceased to be entitled to possession of any evacuee property, he shall on demand by the Custodian surrender possession of such property to the Custodian or to any person duly authorised by him in this behalf.

(3) If any person fails to surrender possession of any property on demand under sub-section (2), the Custodian may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, eject such person and take possession of such property in the manner provided in section 9.

13. Payments to Custodian to be valid discharge.—(1) Any amount due to any evacuee in respect of any property which has vested in the Custodian or in respect of any transaction entered into by the evacuee, shall be paid to the Custodian by the person liable to pay the same.

(2) Any payment made otherwise than in accordance with sub-section (1) shall not discharge the person paying it from his obligation to pay the amount due, and shall not affect the right of the Custodian to enforce such obligation against any such person.

14. Recouping of expenditure by Custodian.—Any expenditure incurred by the Custodian in the exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act shall, in relation to any evacuee property in respect of which it has been incurred, be a charge on such property and shall, subject to the provisions of section 51, have priority over all other charges on the property, and such expenditure may be met or recouped by the Custodian out of the income accruing from such property or the sale proceeds thereof.

15. Maintenance of accounts by Custodian.—(1) The Custodian shall maintain a separate account of the property of each evacuee possession whereof has been taken by him, and shall cause to be made therein entries of all receipts and expenditure in respect thereof.

(2) The accounts shall be maintained in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The State Government shall cause the accounts maintained under this section to be inspected and audited at such intervals and by such persons as may be prescribed.

16. Restoration of property.—(1) The Custodian may, on application made to him in this behalf in writing by an evacuee or any person claiming to be the heir of an evacuee, restore, subject to such terms and conditions as he may think fit to impose, the evacuee property to which the evacuee or other person would have been entitled if this Act were not in force:

Provided that the applicant produces in support of his application a certificate from the Central Government, or from any person authorised by it in this behalf, to the effect that the evacuee property may be so restored if the applicant is otherwise entitled thereto.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Custodian shall cause public notice thereof to be given in the prescribed manner and, after holding a summary inquiry into the claim in such manner as may be prescribed, may—

(a) make a formal order declaring that the property shall be restored to the applicant; or

(b) reject the application; or

(c) refer the applicant to a civil court for the determination of his claim and title to the property;

Provided that no order for restoration shall be made under this section, unless provision has been made in the prescribed manner for the recovery of any amount due to the Custodian in respect of the property or the management thereof.

(3) Upon the restoration of the property to the evacuee or to the heir, as the case may be, the Custodian shall stand absolved of all responsibilities in respect of the property so restored, but such restoration shall not prejudice the rights, if any, in respect of the property which any other person may be entitled to enforce against the person to whom the property has been so restored:

Provided that every lease granted in respect of the property by or on behalf of the Custodian shall have effect against the person to whom restoration is made until such lease is determined by lapse of time or by operation of law.

(4) The Custodian shall, on demand, furnish to the evacuee or to the heir, as the case may be, a statement containing an abstract of the account of the income received and expenditure incurred in respect of the property.

CHAPTER III

CERTAIN CONSEQUENCES OF PROPERTY VESTING IN CUSTODIAN

17. Exemption from attachment, sale, etc.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no property which has vested in the Custodian shall be liable to attachment, distress or sale in execution of an order of a court or of any other authority, and no injunction in respect of any such property shall be granted by any court or other authority.

(2) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, any attachment or injunction subsisting on the commencement of this Act in respect of any evacuee property which has vested in the Custodian shall cease to have effect on such commencement, and any transfer of evacuee property under orders of a court or any other authority made after the 1st day of March, 1947, shall be set aside, if an application is made to such court or authority by or at the instance of the Custodian within six months from the commencement of this Act.

18. Occupancy or tenancy right not to be extinguished.—Nothing contained in any other law for the time being in force shall be deemed to extinguish the right of occupancy in any land or the site of any house or other building of an evacuee which has vested in the Custodian and, notwithstanding anything contained in any such law, neither the evacuee nor the Custodian, whether as an occupancy tenant or as a tenant for a fixed term of any land or the site of any house or other building, shall be liable to be ejected or deemed to have become so liable on any ground whatsoever for any default of the Custodian.

CHAPTER IV

PROPERTY OF INTENDING EVACUEES

19. Declaration of person as intending evacuee.—(1) Where the Custodian has reason to believe that a person is an intending evacuee, he may, by notice served in the prescribed manner, call upon such person to show cause why he should not be declared an intending evacuee, and shall, after holding such inquiry into the matter as the circumstances thereof permit, and after taking such evidence as may be produced by or on behalf of the person showing cause, pass an order (stating the reasons therefor) either declaring such person to be an intending evacuee or closing the case.

(2) Any declaration made under sub-section (1) shall be published in the Official Gazette.

(3) The Custodian may, pending determination of the question whether any person is an intending evacuee or otherwise, attach in the prescribed manner any property in the State in which such person has a right or interest, and during the pendency of such attachment, the property shall be incapable of being transferred or charged in any way, except with the leave of the Custodian, and no person shall be capable of taking any benefit from such transfer or charge except with such leave.

20. Consequences of declaration that a person is an intending evacuee.—No person, in respect of whom a declaration has been made under section 19 that he is an intending evacuee, shall transfer in any manner whatsoever any immovable property, in which he has any right or interest, situated in any part of the territories to which this Act extends, except with the previous approval of the Custodian, and any transfer made in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be void and of no effect.

21. Powers of Custodian generally in respect of property of intending evacuees.—For the purposes of preserving any property in which any person in respect of whom a declaration has been made under section 19 that he is an intending evacuee has any right or interest, the Custodian may,—

(a) by order in writing, require any such person to furnish such returns, accounts or other information in relation to any such property and to produce such documents in his possession as the Custodian may require;

(b) inspect the books of account or other documents maintained by or in the possession of such person;

(c) pass such orders or direct such action to be taken in relation to any such property as may be considered by him to be necessary;

(d) by order in writing, prohibit the transfer to Pakistan of any sum of money belonging to any such person or permit such transfer subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Custodian may think fit to impose.

22. Declaration of property of intending evacuee as evacuee property in certain cases.—If the Custodian is satisfied—

(a) that any person in respect of whom a declaration has been made under section 19 that he is an intending evacuee, has made a transfer of any property in contravention of section 20, or has failed to comply with any order made under clause (c) or clause (d) of section 21; or

(b) after such enquiry as may be prescribed, that the circumstances relating to any person, in respect of whom a declaration has been so made on the ground that after the 14th day of August, 1947, and before the 1st day of October, 1949, he had done any of the acts specified in sub-clauses (i) to (iv) of clause (c) of section 2, are such as may be prescribed as constituting a preparation for his migrating to Pakistan, the Custodian may declare any property situated in the State in which such person has any right or interest to be evacuee property, and on the issue of such notification any property specified in the notification shall be deemed to be evacuee property which has vested in the Custodian within the meaning of this Act.

Explanation.—The following shall be deemed to be some of the circumstances prescribed under clause (b), namely—

(i) the transfer to Pakistan by any person referred to in that clause of a substantial portion of his assets situated in any part of the territories to which this Act extends, or

(ii) the acquisition of, or the declaration of an intention to acquire, Pakistan nationality by any such person.

23. Intending evacuee requiring evacuee or abandoned property in Pakistan for inadequate consideration to make good the deficiency.—(1) Where any person in respect of whom a declaration has been made under section 19 that he is an intending evacuee has either personally or through any other agency acquired, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, any right to, interest in or benefit from any property which is treated as evacuee or abandoned property under any law for the time being in force in Pakistan for a consideration which, in the opinion of the Custodian, is neither reasonable nor adequate, the Custodian may, after notice to such person and after affording him a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding such inquiry as the circumstances of the case permit, determine, by order in writing, the amount, if any, by which the consideration, in his opinion, falls short of the real value of the property so acquired, and require such person to pay the amount to the Custodian within such time as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the amount is not paid within the time specified, or within such further time as the Custodian may allow, the Custodian may take possession of so much of the property of such intending evacuee as would be sufficient to cover the amount in the case of movable property, or as would afford a reasonable security for the recovery of the amount in the case of immovable property.
